BRIDGEPORTS FIND

Bartford Works "Squeeze" in Waterbury in 11th Inning of Close Game-Other State League Games.

Springfield, May 6.—Bridgeport found the Ponies easy here yesterday, winning hands down 7-1. Pollard, pitching for the visitors, had Springfield at his mercy, allowing only three hits. The field behind Pollard was raw, seven errors being contributed. The Orators bunched hits on Murray Parker. which, aided with rank errors, threw the game away. Pollard scored three runs. The score:

Fans all over the circuit are commending the action of President Tracy of the league in slapping a fine of $50 and a suspension till July ist on Catcher Schincel of Waterbury for damaging Umpire Murray's pro file on Sunday. If course it comes rather hard on Schincel to be suspended at this stage of the game, but it will be an example to the other players in the league to keep their hands of the umpire to the other players in the league to keep their hands off the um-pires. It is a well known fact that it is human nature to damage an umpire when he appears to be unfair, but it must be abated.

Harry Durant and Player Schincel deny the fact that Schincel struck Murray on Sunday. From all appearances it looks as if Harry had bottled up the Waterbury papers over the assault, as nothing appeared in their editions of Monday concerning it.

Luke Wright and John Woods Escape From Sanitarium and are Arrested.

Son of Roosevelt's Secretary of War Makes an Indecent Spectacle on Main Street.

Luke Wright, 30 years old, son of Lake Wright, Secretary of War in President Roosevelt's cabinet and John Woods, inmates of McFarlane's sanitarium in Greens Farms, got away from the institution yesterday and went on a glorious drunk here. Wright performed in a shameless manner at Main and Wall streets and was ar-rested by Lieut. Anderson. Patrol-man Hall had arrested Woods a short time previously.

Wright was sent to the sanitarium to be treated for habitual drunkenness. Woods has been there for several years. At headquarters Wright was defiant, but Woods realized his posi-tion and pleaded to be allowed to re-turn to the sanitarium.

The sanitarium was communicated with and the men were identified. A representative of the institution appeared at the police station, this morning and asked to have the men turned over to him. This was done and the men with their keeper left for Greens Farms on the trolley. In his cell this morning Wright had little to say. His right hand was cov-ered with bandages and he said that
